

EST/LA, located at Atwater Village Theatre, acknowledges our presence on the traditional, ancestral, and unceded homelands of the Tongva, Chumash, and Kizh people, who resided here and stewarded this land before the city of Los Angeles was formed, and are still living here among us today.

About the Playwright

Mak Shealy (she/they) is a writer and performer originally from a field in South Carolina and now based in Los Angeles and New York (yes, it's cliché to be bisexual and bicoastal). Mak's work highlights queer and non-binary experiences through the subversion of form and humor. Whenever possible, Mak writes about the convergence of unexpected identities in rural America and always, always, hope. LEAKY, their solo show about digestive trauma returns to LA on May 24th at Lyric Hyperion! IG: @makattacksnacks.
